THE CLAM

“

Biodiversity and environmental sustainability are truly important to us. All of the wines on our list have been selected not only for their inherent deliciousness, but also for how thoughtfully their makers treat the land and the vines as well as the people who tend them.

We consciously support small growers and their families in an effort to build better communities all over the world.

Ahhh... bubbles. Despite popular lore and lots of marketing, sparkling wine and Champagne are not just for special events. In fact, they are the most versatile wines on the planet, bar none. Lighter versions can be consumed alone. More structured, aged variations can stand up to any full-flavored spice or food, including meat. Lucky for us, they are absolutely ideal for seafood. And while these wines are truly meant for every day of the week, the delight of tiny bubbles doing miniature cartwheels across your tongue is hard to beat, and sure to bring a bit of unabashed, childlike glee to any occasion.
